OPSoftware Product Descriptions

All Market Xpert Web packages Include:

Market Xpert.COM Website access, Bid Wizard, Price Set, up to 25 additional Market Xpert user logins and email support. Up to 25 people within your organization can use the same Market Xpert Web login simultaneously. Individual logins allow you to limit access to sensitive bids or pricing plans.

Market Xpert Mobile App: Allows up to 25 users to connect to Market Xpert using iPad, iPhone, and Android devices.

Desktop App: Add up to 25 desktop users on your existing Market Xpert Web subscription. With a full Market Xpert Web subscription you can customize the desktop app by user to display specific chains and your own custom pricing—including your cost.

My Presentations: Up to 25 users can create custom presentation-quality bids from Bid Wizard. Include your logo, company name, and product images for stunning bid presentations.

Optional Best Cost Load: Having your Essendant best cost in your Market Xpert account allows you to set a floor GP% in your pricing strategies and see at a glance your cost on the Item Detail Screen. With your permission, we request your cost feed from Essendant and keep it updated once a month. Your cost is confidential to your account.

Market Xpert Retail Base Plan: Includes pricing and cross-references from all the top national office products retailers and warehouse clubs. Contact us for a current list of sources.

Add-ons

Market Xpert Web Commercial Power Channel: Includes pricing and cross-references for national business to business contracts from all the top office products retailers. Contact us for a current list of sources.

Market Xpert Web Public Sector: Includes state and local government pricing and cross-references for the most popular piggy-back contracts from the national retailers. Contact us for a current list of sources.

Facility Supply: Includes pricing and cross-references for the facility supply market from the top national retailers and contract providers. Contact us for a current list of sources.

GSA Advantage: Includes GSA Advantage pricing and cross-references continuously updated with details on top 5 sellers, median, high, and low prices.

Connect411: Connect411 connects your back-end computer system to Market Xpert. Using Connect411 you can upload and download contracts from Market Xpert and post them to your back-end system. Keep contracts updated on a schedule to implement match-or-beat pricing. Connect411 can be used only with DDMS and SSI. It is not needed for Britannia V5 or Red Cheetah/Red Falcon.
